

Major General James A. Code, Jr., USA (Ret.)
332 South Michigan Avenue
Room 1800
Chicago 4, Illinois

Dear Jack:

Thanks sincerely for your thoughtful note of congratulations. Needless to say, I am pleased and most complimentary with the news of my nomination and very grateful for the kind messages which I have been receiving at this time from such good friends as you.

With regard to [ ] I have been advised by our Personnel people that after a thorough canvass of the existing vacancies it does not appear that we have a position in which an individual with [ ] qualifications could be profitably utilized. I regret that an appropriate assignment could not be found for him.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
